The #ExxonKnew witch hunt has been characterized by collusion, conspiracies, and corruption. But as always happens with such efforts, the truth is coming to light.

The collusion amongst state AGs to target Exxon has been exposed, and now Lee Wasserman of the Rockefeller Family Fund has contradicted his earlier assertions and admitted that they did indeed pay for a journalistic hatchet job targeting Exxon.

Given that yesterday US District Court Judge Ed Kinkeade ordered Massachusetts Attorney General Maura Healey to attend a deposition on December 13th and "advised" New York Attorney General Eric Schneiderman to also make himself available on the 13th, we expect to see more truth emerging in the coming weeks.

Print as PDF:

Tags

Exxon Mobil

Rockefeller Family Fund

Lee Wasserman

AG Eric Schneiderman

AG Maura Healey

Attorneys General